Taxes:

Please acknowledge that you are responsible for paying the City of Philadelphia any applicable sales tax related to this event. Philadelphia City sales tax is now 8%. A Transient Vendor Certificate should be obtained from the PA State Website.

Refunds:

If you are accepted as a vendor, but cannot participate, please let us know by November 1, 2009. No refunds will be given after this date.

Event Details:

This is an indoor event, so you will not need to break down your booth at the end of day one. Booth sizes are 6' ft by 6' ft. Vendors are responsible for providing their own display, including tables. Overhead lighting is present and accessibility to additional electric will be made available. Please provide your own extension cords / power strips as needed.

Jurying:

We jury entries with several criteria in mind. First, we look for crafts that "fit" with our aesthetic intent. We also work to ensure a mix of categories of crafts and look for high quality and creativity.

Thank you for applying to Cut the Craft!
